

Faculty Review of Open eTextbooks

The California Open Educational Resources Council has designed and implemented a faculty review process of the free and open etextbooks showcased within the California Open Online Library for Education (www.cool4ed.org). Faculty from the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California were invited to review the selected free and open etextbooks using a rubric. Faculty received a stipend for their efforts and funding was provided by the State of California, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Total Points: 11 out of 30

Please provide comments on any aspect of the subject matter of this textbook:

- The content is acceptable for an Introduction to Sociology course, but not for a Modern Social Problems course.
- The url states there is a test bank, instructor manual and PowerPoints. These would all be helpful, but I could not readily download these files without 24-48 hours delay.

- Decent amount of pictures and charts, but again the content is not directed at the study of Modern Social Problems. Hence, the instructional design is lacking.

Overall Comments

If you were to recommend this textbook to colleagues, what merits of the textbook would you highlight?

- This would be suitable for an Introduction to Sociology course but not a Modern Social Problems course.

What areas of this textbook require improvement in order for it to be used in your courses?

- A total revamping of focus on the topic of Modern Social Problems. Every chapter and paragraph would need to directly tie into the topic of Modern Social Problems.
